Bio

Ardo Ran Varres composer

Tartu, Estonia

Ardo Ran Varres is a composer of music for screen, stage and concerts. He studied clarinet at the Tallinn Music High School with Hans Suurväli, graduating in 1996, from the Drama School at the Estonian Academy of Music. In 2011, he obtained a masters degree in composition at the Estonian Academy of Music and Theatre under Prof. Helena Tulve.

Between 1996 and 2001, Ardo Ran was an actor at the Rakvere Theatre, and from 2001–2003 at the Estonian State Drama Theatre, continuing there as its Director of Music from 2003–2011. Educated in both theatre and music his composing and music design is informed by his experiences in the roles of sound engineer, musician, and actor.

One of his strongest skills is his understanding of dramaturgy, transposing the director's or writer's intentions skillfully into the language of sound.

Ardo Ran's musical tastes are diverse and contemporary, his writing has delivered scores for a wide range of commissions, stretching from memorable uplifting melodies to experimental soundscapes. As well as composing for popular instruments, he takes recordings from nature and from artificial environments and digitally manipulates them to provide unique and connective material for his music.
